

COURTNEY BIO

Meet Courtney Johnson, a visionary entrepreneur and passionate advocate for families fighting cancer. At just 23, she founded the nonprofit Culinary Care, inspired by her father's battle with lung cancer and the profound impact of meals delivered to their home.

Under her guidance, Culinary Care has provided over 30,000 free meals in the past decade, offering hope, community, and relief to families in their fight against cancer. Courtney's story is a testament to the power of compassion, perseverance, and transforming personal pain into purpose.

"Courtney left our group feeling empowered and motivated. She has a unique gift for connecting with people on a deep level, instilling hope, and inspiring action."

Filling a Gap: Turning Your Restaurant into a Socially Impactful Organization

To book or for questions, contact info@culinarycare.org.

PROGRAM BIO

Discover the immense power your restaurant holds in giving back to the community. Courtney Johnson, the visionary founder of Culinary Care, will share insights on how to transform your restaurant into a socially impactful organization. This topic will inspire restaurant owners and managers to embrace their role in making a difference and filling a critical gap in their communities.

ATTENDEES WILL LEARN

- How your restaurant can become a force for social change and make a positive impact
- Practical strategies for meaningful partnerships to extend your reach and impact
- How to leverage your restaurant's resources and influence to foster a sense of community
- How to communicate your commitment to social impact to your customers and community
- Practical steps to implement socially impactful programs - considering logistics, scalability, and sustainability
- Ways to engage your restaurant staff and team in meaningful community initiatives, fostering a sense of pride in their work